

Completing proof of identity

Primary photographic identification

You will need to provide a copy of one of the following primary identification documents:

- Current Australian or foreign driver's licence (including the back of the driver's licence if your address has changed)
- Australian passport
- Current foreign passport<sup>1</sup>, or similar document issued for the purpose of international travel<sup>1</sup>
- Current card issued under a State or Territory for the purpose of proving a person's age
- Current national identity card issued by a foreign government for the purpose of identification<sup>1</sup>

Identification documents must not be expired (excepting an Australian passport which may be expired within 2 years).

Alternative identification

If you are unable to provide any primary photographic identification, you will need to provide two identification documents, one from each of the following lists:

- Birth certificate or birth extract<sup>1</sup>
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Pension card issued by the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) that entitles the person to financial benefits

AND

- Letter from the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) or other Government body in the last 12 months regarding a Government assistance payment
- Tax Office Notice of Assessment issued in the last 12 months
- Rates notice from local council issued in the last 3 months
- Electricity, gas or water bill issued in the last 3 months
- Landline phone bill issued in the last 3 months (mobile phone bills will not be accepted)

Name change

If you have changed your name, you must provide a certified copy of the relevant name change document<sup>1</sup>, for example, a Marriage Certificate issued by the Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages, Decree Nisi or Deed Poll (in addition to the above identification).

If your legal name or date of birth does not match exactly to our records (excluding aforementioned name changes), please contact us for further instructions.

<sup>1</sup> Translation: If your identification is written in a language other than English, the identification must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd. (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or higher (or an equivalent accreditation), to translate from a language other than English into English.

Signing on behalf of another person

If you are signing on behalf of the applicant you will need to provide the following:

A certified copy of the Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney; and

A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the holder of the Guardianship or Power of Attorney.

Note: ID is not required for the member – only for the Power of Attorney

How to certify documents

After sighting the original and the copy and making sure both documents are identical, the certifier must include on EACH page:

- Written or stamped 'certified true copy'
- Signature and printed full name
- Qualification (such as Justice of the Peace, Australia Post employee, etc)
- Date (the date of certification must be within the 3 months prior to our receipt)

← A clear copy of the document that identifies you (i.e. your driver's licence (front and back) or passport)

Certified true copy ← Write or stamp 'certified true copy' of the original document

J. Sample ← The authorised person's signature

Mr John Sample ← Full name, qualification and registration number (if applicable) of the authorised person

Justice of Peace ← Date of certification (within 3 months of receipt)

Registration No.123456789

Date: 01/02/2012

Verification

A verification of the certifying party may be performed. If a discrepancy arises, you may be requested to re-certify documentation.

Important Note

The information in this document is a guide only and we may request additional documentation prior to any payment.
