

Apply for a super payout

Step 1 – Check that you're eligible

You wish to receive part or all of your super payout in cash

A portion of your super benefit may be preserved. If the preserved amount is over $200, legislation requires that it be retained in an approved rollover fund, unless one of the circumstances below applies to you.

- You have reached your preservation* age and have permanently retired from the workforce.
- You are at least 60 years of age and have ceased employment since attaining age 60.

Permanently retired is defined as never being gainfully employed again for more than 10 hours per week.

Gainful employment means employed or self-employed for gain or reward in any business trade, profession, calling, occupation or employment.

* Your preservation age is between 55 and 60 depending on your date of birth – refer to the table below:

Date of Birth	Preservation Age
Before 1 July 1960	55
1 July 1960 to 30 June 1961	56
1 July 1961 to 30 June 1962	57
1 July 1962 to 30 June 1963	58
1 July 1963 to 30 June 1964	59
1 July 1964 or after	60

You wish to rollover to another fund

You can apply to transfer all or part of your super to another complying super fund.

Step 3 – The easy way to certify your ID

- photocopy both sides of your current drivers licence or passport
- take the photocopy and the original to Australia Post* or your local Police station.

* To be able to certify your documents, the Australia Post employee must be a permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with 2 or more years of continuous service in an office supplying postal services to the public. Australia Post will charge a small fee for each photocopy you need to get certified.

 A Police Officer, Sheriff or Sheriff's Officer can certify your ID.

You can also refer to the Completing Proof of Identity fact sheet on the Scheme's website at www.anzstaffsuper.com for a list of other people who can certify your ID.

To certify your documents, the authorised person needs to:

1. compare the photocopy to the ORIGINAL
2. include the following details on the copy:
 - write on the photocopy: "Certified true copy" and
 - write their name, qualification and registration number (if applicable) and
 - sign and date the photocopy

Providing your Tax File Number (TFN)

There may be tax implications if you have not yet provided, or choose not to provide, your TFN. Whilst it is not compulsory to provide your TFN, not doing so could cost you in the following ways:

- you may have paid more tax than necessary on super contributions made for you by your employer (including SG, salary sacrifice and other contributions) in this financial year. This additional tax can be reversed if you provide your TFN to the Scheme before the end of the financial year, or your earlier payment from the Scheme. Although you may be able to claim back this additional tax if you later provide your TFN, time limits and other rules may apply, which may affect the size of any refund.

- you may pay additional tax on your super payout. However it might be possible to claim this back when lodging your tax return.
- you may miss out on any government Super Co-contributions for which you may be eligible; and
- you may have difficulty locating your super in the future, should you lose contact with your Scheme(s).

If you ask us to use your TFN as proof of identity, we will validate your TFN with the Australian Tax Office. If your TFN is not valid, you will need to provide proof of identify (see below) and your super payout will be delayed.

If you are uncertain as to whether or not you have provided your TFN, you can check these details on the Scheme's website www.anzstaffsuper.com or contact the Helpline on 1800 000 086.
